CLUB ANNOUNCEMENTS

SEEKING 2017-18 CLUB PRESIDENT NOMINATIONS: Nominations or self-nominations are due to me via email adam.howard@kyfb.com by Monday, November 16, 2015.

CLUB MEMBERSHIP: Congratulations to L.D. Campbell who re-inducted into the Florence Club at our last meeting. Timothy Davis, President of Avalon Retirement Solutions has applied to rejoin our club and is proposed by Jim Ferguson.

SPONSOR BUTTONS NEEDS YOUR HELP: Rotary operates on gifts. Currently we have 40 sponsor buttons donating $4000 per year. The Hodges' have set a goal of adding 10. We rotate the buttons to our front page every 3 weeks. So why not consider getting 3 buttons? With over 500 quality visits per month to your website this could be one of the best donations you could make.

BECOME A PAUL HARRIS FELLOW: There is currently a dollar for dollar match on all gifts to the foundation if you give enough to reach your next Paul Harris Fellowship. Foundation Chair Greg Palmer sent you an email this week informing you of the amount you need to qualify for the match.

STEINFORD TOY FOUNDATION: Last year Pat Raverty was asked by a friend who is a volunteer for the Steinfeld Toy Foundation if he would mind finding with one collection point for toys. Pat thought this would be an ideal project for the Florence Rotary which resulted in over 30 collection points. Pat says this year it looks like we will have 50 sites! Who does not want to help a child get a present for Christmas? Please consider running a neighborhood, family or business drive to assist these children. To find out more about their next event, Friday November 4th from 7 p.m. click here.

JOHN SALYERS' MEXICO REPORT: There are eleven projects that we are involved in. John is bringing a Project for our club to sponsor. It is designed to take children out of the dump where their mother's are looking for food — and put them in a Daycare. This is part of "Heart to Heart" — from the heart of USA to the heart of Mexico.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT 2015: Over the past 30 years we have hosted 55 concerts. This year the concert will be at the Lakeside Christian Church (195 Buttermilk Pike, Lakeside Park, KY) on Monday, December 7 (starts 6:30 PM). Gary Stewart is challenging all Rotarians to hand out 30 invitations (that is just 15 couples).

awards, launched a youth service club and raised thousands of dollars for scholarships and international youth exchanges.

"For a long period of time, we were homeless," said Ed Monohan, who joined the club in 1976 and ranks as the longest serving member. "Then we found a permanent home at the Commonwealth Hilton and that's been the key to survival." Finding a home was just one of the challenges. Florence Rotary had 17 members when Candyse Jeffries became the first woman to lead the organization in 1993. "We struggled to find projects that a few people could accomplish," she recalled. Membership soared after Florence Rotary pulled off its first international project in 2006, according to Mike Crane. The club raised more than $30,000 to purchase uniforms for school children in Tanzania. Four people from the Florence Club went there at their own experience to deliver school uniforms.

"Those children couldn't even go to school because they couldn't afford uniforms, and they had to wear uniforms," Rusk said. For 16 years, Shawn Carroll has organized a golf outing that provides college scholarships for students in Boone County. The Youth Exchange led by Jack Lundy has enabled students to visit France and sent students to several other countries for a school year. And, in 2012 Barbara Rahn and Sharon Almquist started an Interact Club, a youth service group for high school students in the county that has done volunteer work in the Dominican Republic the past two years. "It's such a joy to see these young people grow into responsible adults," she said.

It's also a joy for long-time members to see the growth of the club and the vast array of community projects and volunteer service hours Florence Rotarians put in each year.

"What you can accomplish with the numbers and support is unbelievable," said Dennis McEvoy, a past president of the club and a past district governor of Rotary. "This isn't just a meet and eat group."

Rotary 70th Anniversary,

by Pat Moynahan

The Florence Rotary Club celebrated its 70th anniversary on Monday, November 2.

The organization has grown from a handful of business people who struggled to find a permanent home for Rotary to the second largest Rotary Club in District 6740, which includes all the clubs east of Interstate 75 in Kentucky.

The organization also has grown from a handful of dedicated citizens into a 105-member strong club that undertakes major service projects from Florence to Africa. In recent years, the club has helped create the Boone County Veterans Memorial, funded a room at St. Elizabeth Hospice, established Teacher of the Year and Citizen of the Year
