The Interact Club of Boone County invites all area students to learn more about applying for scholarships! The group will meet on January 27th at 7:00 p.m. at the Scheben branch of the Boone County Public Library. According to presenter Dan Bisig from College & Beyond, too many scholarships are not awarded because the potential recipients are not aware of them. Mr. Bisig believes that all students should know about their options to help pay for higher education. Please bring all your questions and enjoy the evening as a guest of the Interact Club.

Interact of Boone County is a community-based youth service group open to all Northern Kentuckians ages 12-18 and is sponsored by the Florence Rotary Club. Meetings are held on the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of each month at the Scheben library branch in Union. Local service projects have included: playing cows in an equine therapy program, sorting clothes at a local clothing distribution warehouse, teaching local disadvantaged kids how to fish, serving meals at a soup kitchen, playing games with the clients of a teen shelter, and removing trash and natural debris from the pathways and trails of a state park. Last June, the club organized an international service project to the Dominican Republic where they painted the homes of two older adults in a remote village, served snacks and played basketball with students at a pre-school, distributed donated clothing to needy Dominicans, and visited an orphanage.

There is NO charge for this event. However, seating is limited, therefore reservations are required.

Please contact Barbara Rahn, Interact Advisor to reserve your space (859)663-8984.
