There are two types of Rotary Club Membership .

Active and Honorary. Long time members probably recall when there were more, but no longer. Active members are elected to hold a classification, can hold office in their club, and serve at district and international levels. They are expected to meet attendance requirements, pay dues and bring new members into Rotary. Honorary membership may be offered to people who have extinguished themselves by meritorious service in the furthering of Rotary ideals. They cannot propose new members, hold office and are exempt from paying dues .Many distinguished heads of state, explorers, authors, musicians, astronauts and other public personalities have been honorary members including kings,scientists, and US presidents.
