We hope you are staying safe during these unprecedented times. At Thomas More University, we are thankful about the future because we know that education has the power to transform lives and help organizations reach their most valuable employees.

Through adult education, individuals increase their worth and expand their future opportunities in the organizations they worked. Their dedication to their continuing education along with their employer's support and guidance created a synergy that helped organizations achieve their goals.

With uncertainty ahead, many organizations believe that now is the time to help employees improve their skills. To meet this immediate need, we are offering Thomas More University a special corporate scholarship benefit.

How to Apply: Complete and return the application form to the contact person listed below.
