Swiss Rotary clubs help young refugees start new lives

Career discovery day attendees learn skills at a garden center in Dürnten, Switzerland, organized by members of several clubs in Zürich and nearby in January 2020. During three career exploration days, 190 refugees met with representatives from companies and trade organizations and learned about job opportunities.			Refugees learn cooking skills at another discovery day in Oberstammheim, Switzerland in February 2020. Up to 50 young people visit a company, and its employees and trainers explain what it's like to work in that profession.		Refugees explore a company for plumbing, heating, air-conditioning, roofing, siding, and sheet metal work in Zürich, Switzerland, at a career discovery day in January 2019. The Rotary clubs hope to expand the program to other regions of the country
