Extracted from "How to Make Your Club Irresistible!" by District Governor Jeanne Clark:

- 1) First Impressions Matter: Ensure your club is welcoming to guests and members, promoting inclusivity and warmth.
- 2) Presidents as Encouragers: Presidents should encourage and engage members, making the club experience relevant and appealing.
- 3) Listening to Members: Club leadership should listen to members, foster open discussions, and let members have a say in the club's direction.
- 4) Understanding Member Engagement: Understand why members join and leave, and focus on member engagement to maintain a strong club.
- 5) Raising Community Awareness: Promote your club's image and work in the community through various platforms like social media.
- 6) Active Involvement in Rotary Programs: Healthy clubs are proactive in involving their members in Rotary programs and initiatives.

RCoFKy - Family Picnic

Back by popular demand, we are having a family picnic. Kindly hosted by Rotarian Greg Palmer at his place, 15200 Porter Rd, Verona, KY.

The Palmers will be providing fried chicken and drinks but need to know how much to prepare.

We are asking everyone to bring an appetizer, side dish or dessert to share.

The picnic will be on Saturday, September 16th starting at 6 pm.

Date: 09/16/2023 (Sat.)
