The Rotary Club of Florence and Steinfeld Toy Foundation have joined forces again in 2023 in order to bring joy this holiday season to thousands of children in Northern Kentucky. The club has been collecting toys since the 2015 holiday season and looks forward to this community project each year. Donations of unwrapped new toys are being received at the locations listed below and as more locations are added, they can be viewed on the club's website. Donations will be accepted through Monday, December 11th.

"Our community cares and Christmas joy is needed more than ever. Please drop new toys off at any of the listed locations between November 14th and December 11th. Our Rotary Club of Florence volunteer team will pick-up and send your gifts to the Steinfeld Toy Foundation. In turn, your donated toys will be delivered by Steinfeld Toy Foundation volunteers directly to children to brighten Christmas and bless over 3,500 children in Northern Kentucky!" states Rotary Club of Florence Project Chairperson Gary Wilmhoff.

During the Great Depression, a Northern Kentucky couple, Rose and George Steinfeld, witnessed many needy children in their neighborhood who were not experiencing the joys of Christmas. Rose and George, who had no children of their own, assumed the roles of Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus by purchasing, repairing and distributing used toys to these children. Today, that tradition is continued through the Steinfeld Toy Foundation, founded in 1973, and the Foundation's volunteers that collect and distribute the toys.
